

Curriculum vitae

2005

Tom Mwebaze (Ph.D)

Makerere University
Faculty of Economics and Management
P.O. BOX 7062
Kampala, Uganda

BioData:

Date of Birth: 9 August 1968
Sex: Male
Marital Status: Married
No. of Child: Three
Nationality: Ugandan
Profession: Economist

Education Qualifications:

2003-June 2005 Johannes Kepler University of Linz-Austria
PhD (Economics)
1998 - 1999 McGill University- Canada, PhD coursework
1993-1995 University of Dar-Es-Salaam - Tanzania
Award MA (Economics)
1989-1992 Makerere University - Kampala , Uganda
Award Bachelor of Science in Economics/Statistics -Second Upper Hons

Further Training and Workshops Attended:

December 2004 AERC research workshop - Nairobi
April – May 1999 Workshop for Graduate Students funded by Rockefeller Foundation and organised by Minnesota University conducted at Wilder Forest in USA.
June 1998 Training of Trainers for Economic Policy Management (EPM) funded by World Bank conducted at Makerere University and organised by African Capacity Building Fund
June - Oct 1994 Collaborative Masters programme optional for the Elective Courses & Computer training organised by African Economic Research Consortium and conducted at Nairobi Institute of Bankers.

Employment Record:

1995 – to-date Lecturer, Makerere University, Faculty of Economics and Management.
2003 – to-date External Examiner, Uganda management Institute (UMI)

1997 - 2003	Associate Consultant, Uganda Management Institute (UMI)
1993-June 1995	Tutorial Assistant, University of Dar es Salaam, Economics Department
1992 – 93	Teaching Assistant, Makerere University, Department of Economics
1992	Purchasing Officer, Kitagwenda Coffee Processors
1986, 1989	Teacher, Kitagwenda High School
1986, 1989	Teacher, Ibanda Senior Secondary School

Particular Fields of University Training:

- Micro/Macro- economic issues and management.
- Development economics , Planning and policy analysis
- Econometrics and Quantitative Methods.
- Monetary and International economics
- Basic Statistics, Mathematics, Econometrics and Operations Research.
- Project Appraisal & Evaluation.
- Agricultural Management and Financial Accounting.
- Production and Marketing Economics.
- Probability and Sampling theory
- Project Planning and Management

Computer Knowledge:

- Introduction to Operating Systems (MS-DOS, PC-DOS & MS-Windows)
- Word Processing Using Word Perfect and MS-Word
- Programming in Basic Programming, Fortran, Pascal, Rats, Dbase, Cobol
- Spreadsheet Using Lotus 1-2-3 and MS-Excel
- Data Base Management System Using Dbase IV and MS-Access
- Data Analysis using Stata, SPSS, PCGIVE, EP-Info and Eviews
- System Analysis and Design
- Algorithms And Data Structures
- Computer Architecture and Machine Organisation

Areas of Speciality at Masters Level:

- Quantitative Methods
- Micro/Macroeconomic Theory
- Monetary Economics
- Econometrics
- Agricultural Economics
- Economic Development and Planning
- Development Policy Design and analysis

Research Experience:

- The Extent and Determinants of child Labour in Uganda – ongoing.
- Profitability of dairy Farming in Uganda- PhD Dissertation.
- Factors affecting Economic Growth in developing countries- A case study of East Africa(2002/03).
- 2001-Sept 2002: Causes of financial mismanagement/losses in Uganda’s local governments- A study funded by Rockefeller Foundation.

- October 1994 - June 1995: Supply Response of Uganda's Agricultural Output with respect to Price and non-price Policies - MA Dissertation.

Language Proficiency:

	Written	Spoken	Reading
English	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent
Runyankore/Rutooro	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent
Luganda	Very good	Good	Very good
Swahili	Good	Fair	Good