All Hunger Corps positions with Food for the Hungry require raising your own financial and prayer support. Are you willing to raise your own support? (from your church, family and friends): (circle) Yes No

Food for the Hungry requires that people who serve with Hunger Corps are committed to a Faith Community/Church which would also act as your Sending Church. We define "commitment" as participation in a Faith Community/Church for at least one year. We define "Faith Community/Church" as a consistent collaboration of fellow Christians who seek the Lord and apply His word to their daily lives. Lastly, we define "Sending Church" as your primary supporting Faith Community/Church committed to the overall well-being of you as a missionary (which includes moral support, communication, logistics, prayer/financial support, and re-entry).
